

JOHN FULLER

DESIGNER & CONSULTANT

ABOUT JOHN

John Fuller is a seasoned designer and consultant with a unique blend of creative vision and technical expertise. After a decade in the IT industry, John transitioned his focus to design, drawing upon his engineering background to establish a successful design firm over the past 14 years. His approach seamlessly intertwines process-based thinking with creative problem-solving, delivering innovative and effective solutions for a wide range of clients.

TESTIMONIALS

His interdisciplinary approach is buffered by an ability to filter information and provide any audience with a clear understanding of how the subject matter can affect and enhance their professional lives.

ERIC CHESSEN - AUTISM FITNESS

John is really good at what he does. He is smart at explaining complicated ideas in a way anyone can understand, even if they aren't very knowledgeable on the topic.
